PEAVY CAMPAIGN LAUNCHES STATEWIDE MEDIA OUTREACH

The Peavy for Governor 2026 campaign is actively reaching out to news media outlets across California and the nation. We are making ourselves available to any and every journalist, reporter, podcaster, broadcaster, community news outlet, Black press, Latino press, labor press, independent media, and mainstream media who wants to cover this historic campaign.

This is the first time in California's 175-year history that an African American woman and a Latina woman has run for Governor. That story belongs to every Californian and to every American who believes the doors of public service should be open to anyone the Constitution says is qualified. We want that story told. We are ready to tell it.
